CONVERSATION STARTER

Web & Mobile App Development

Client: TableTopics

Industry: Entertainment

Website: <https://www.tabletopics.com/>

TableTopics is the creator of award-winning conversation starter sets that help millions of people spark fun and meaningful discussions with their family and friends around the dinner table, at parties, on road trips – wherever!

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

TableTopics needed a solution to sell products to consumers directly and also to automate a manual process being used for selling to wholesale customers. They also needed a digital version of the physical product.

OBJECTIVE

Develop a secure and scalable e-commerce solution to sell products directly to consumers and wholesale customers; develop a mobile app version of the select conversation starter sets.

SOLUTION

Riverstone designed and developed an elegant and easy-to-navigate e-commerce store and mobile application. The solution includes:

- Mobile application with an engaging user interface/experience
- E-commerce store with support for retail consumers and wholesale customers

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- Content management capabilities
- Promo code-based pricing
- Product positioning
- Push notifications
- Android & iOS support

- Support for differentiated products & pricing
- Functionality to create stores, display products, manage catalog, orders, refunds and view analytics
- Integrating with external system such as payment gateways, shipping providers, order fulfilment etc.
- Adaptive and responsive framework for UI/UX; efficient viewing and paging of products for desktop and mobile platforms

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES

- Catalogs and content management
- Shipping methods with dynamic rates
- Secure payment integration
- Promotions and coupons
- Social media integration
- User Personalization
- In-App purchases
- iOS and Android support
- External integrations

RESULTS

- Significantly grow the direct to consumer sales
- Greatly reduce errors in order management through automation and back-end integration
- Leverage strong retail brand to create an impactful digital presence and provide additional revenue stream
